

Marguerite Mullée is a well-known conductor, singer and clinician. She is a graduate of Columbia University, where she earned a doctorate in Conducting and Vocal Pedagogy. In addition to serving at St. John's Church, she is Professor of Liturgical Music and Sacred Art at Holy Apostles College & Seminary (Cromwell CT) and music consultant for Our Lady of Grace Monastery (Guilford CT).

Dr. Mullée has conducted many church and community groups in Connecticut and New York and has had her work with choirs and orchestras featured on recordings for the Connecticut Composers Inc. Through her concerts and European tours with local groups, she was the recipient of the Statement of Recognition for Musical Excellence in CT from Governor M. Jodi Rell.

In demand as a workshop presenter and lecturer, Dr. Mullée has been a guest lecturer at the Stratford Shakespeare Festival in Ontario and has presented the annual Thomas Aquinas lecture in Sacred Music at UConn Storrs. She offers regular events at Wisdom House (Litchfield CT), Adelynrood Retreat Center (MA) and gives master classes in voice and chant in schools, parishes and monasteries throughout the northeast. She also offers pre-performance lectures for the Metropolitan HD Opera series (Torrington CT) and courses in opera and music listening for seniors (Millbrook NY).
